

10 UNMISSABLE SPOTS WITHIN JUST A FIVE-MINUTE WALK

Culture, wellness, cuisine, shopping... Barceló Torre de Madrid enjoys a privileged location. Some of the very best spots in town are only a five-minute walk away from the WFS19 official hotel.

CULTURE

MUSEO CERRALBO

Royal Palace of Madrid

The Royal Palace is the official residence for the Spanish Royal family, but it's currently only used for state ceremonies. It was built during the 18th and 19th centuries and has more than 3.000 rooms. The guided tour takes about 45 minutes and for an additional price it's possible to visit the Real Cocina, the oldest well-preserved kitchens of a European royal residence.

Museo Cerralbo

This museum, located at just a short walk from the hotel, used to be the house of the 17th Marquis of Cerralbo, who died in 1922. The collection has over 50,000 objects, including paintings, sculptures, ceramics, glass, tapestry, furniture, coins, medals, drawings, stamps, clocks, weapons, armour and archaeological objects...

Musicals

Getting tickets to musicals in Madrid may not be the easiest task in the world, especially for the famous The Lion King or Anastacia. But, don't worry!, Barceló Hotels works closely with Stage Entertainment Productions, the company behind the plays, and VIP tickets are always available for guests.

Centro Cultural Conde Duque
